

Hi-5 Wins Midtown Magazine 2008 Diamond Award

Sport Restaurant Honored For Best Place to Watch the Big Game

Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill, NC (1888PressRelease) February 27, 2009 - Dean Ogan, owner of Rocky Top Hospitality (www.rockytophospitality.com), has announced that Hi-5 has won the 2008 Midtown Diamond Award for best place to watch the big game presented by Midtown Magazine. The Midtown Diamond Awards are voted on by readers and showcase readers' favorites in diverse categories. Midtown Magazine is a bimonthly publication that covers the Midtown area of Raleigh.

Located at 510 Glenwood Ave. in downtown Raleigh, Hi-5 is a sports restaurant and multimedia lounge where eating is a sport. Hi-5's daily menu features decidedly non-sports bar fare like American tapas and Kobe beef cheeseburgers. All food is $5, from burgers, wings and nachos to pizza, sandwiches, salads and entrees. The restaurant provides a plethora of plasma televisions, private fan rooms and drink specials. Hi-5 offers exciting specials every night of the week, such as Monday's Hop Head Night, Tuesday's Karaoke Suicide and Saturday's Dinner and Dancing. A disc jockey energizes the atmosphere Thursday through Saturday, and there is live entertainment throughout the week.

Quotes:

"We are honored to receive this Midtown Diamond Award," said Ogan. "Hi-5 offers a new approach to the typical sports bar. It is a great place to watch any sporting event, and I am glad Midtown Magazine's audience agrees."

About Rocky Top Hospitality:

Rocky Top Hospitality has been devoted to improving Raleigh, North Carolina's local dining scene since 1998, when its first restaurant opened. Michael Dean's Wood Oven and Seafood Grill was the culmination of years of planning by Dean Ogan. Six other restaurants have now opened under the Rocky Top Hospitality name. Rocky Top Hospitality always builds new restaurants from the menu-out, so the emphasis is always on the food and how to create an experience you cannot find anywhere else.
