

The Red Room Tapas Lounge Wins Best Of The Triangle 2009 Rocky Top Hospitality Restaurant Recognized By Independent Weekly

RALEIGH, N.C. – Dean Ogan, owner of Rocky Top Hospitality (www.rockytophospitality.com), has announced that The Red Room Tapas Lounge has been named the best place to salsa dance by Independent Weekly's 2009 Best of the Triangle awards. The Best of the Triangle winners are selected by readers' polls. Red Room offers free salsa lessons during its Salsa Night every Thursday starting at 9 p.m.

The Red Room Tapas Lounge, located at 510 Glenwood South in Raleigh, is the only Spanish-influenced tapas lounge in downtown Raleigh. Appetizer-sized portions are reasonably priced and made for sharing. The Red Room also offers sangria, wine, signature red cocktails and a disc jockey. For more information visit their Web site at www.redroomraleigh.com.

Related Links:

www.rockytophospitality.com

www.redroomraleigh.com

www.indyweek.com

www.mmimarketing.com

News Facts:

- Dean Ogan, owner of Rocky Top Hospitality (www.rockytophospitality.com), has announced that The Red Room Tapas Lounge has been named the best place to salsa dance by Independent Weekly's 2009 Best of the Triangle awards.
- The Best of the Triangle winners are selected by readers' polls.
- Red Room offers free salsa lessons during its Salsa Night every Thursday starting at 9 p.m.
- The Red Room Tapas Lounge, located at 510 Glenwood South in Raleigh, is the only Spanish-influenced tapas lounge in downtown Raleigh.
- Appetizer-sized portions are reasonably priced and made for sharing.
- The Red Room offers sangria, wine, signature red cocktails and a disc jockey.
- For more information visit their Web site at www.redroomraleigh.com.

Quotes:

"We are honored to receive this Best of the Triangle Award," said Ogan. "It is great to know that people are really enjoying our salsa lessons and we thank Independent Weekly readers for this recognition."

About The Red Room Tapas Lounge:

The Red Room Tapas Lounge, located at 510 Glenwood Ave. in downtown Raleigh, is Raleigh's only Spanish-influenced tapas lounge. Appetizer-sized portions are reasonably-priced and made for sharing. Menu items can be served with sangria, any one of the signature red cocktails or wine from the extensive and unique Spanish wine list. With the lounge groove of the disc jockey, The Red Room offers a unique atmosphere that is perfect for festive and intimate gatherings. Lounge and Latin music is played Sunday through Monday, and on Thursday the restaurant offers free salsa lessons for Salsa Night. Other nightly specials include the Sunday Tapas Tour and Kool Kids' Fridays.

About Rocky Top Hospitality:

Rocky Top Hospitality has been devoted to improving Raleigh, North Carolina's local dining scene since 1998, when their first restaurant opened. Michael Dean's Wood Oven and Seafood Grill was the culmination of years of planning by Dean Ogan. Six other restaurants have now opened under the Rocky Top Hospitality name.